is up for the challenge

gramme for inspiration and to facilitate the necessity for collaborations between artists," Seethal said.

Armed with heaps of experience from working extensively across the African continent and the globe, Seethal said she most looked forward to bring to the festival a new dynamic in approaching what is presented to audiences.

"It is exciting and a little scary at the same time.

"But my approach is relationship based, especially with the festival, which has such a strong history," Seethal said.

She officially takes up the position as artistic director in January 2020.

Seethal will be engaging in festival curation processes in the interim.

The 2020 instalment of the National Arts Festival hosted in Makhanda will run from June 25 to July 5.

It is important to bring different offerings to the programme for inspiration 2017. At the last minute she approached the Constitutional Court to extend Cash Paymaster Services' contract to continue administering grants.

A year later Sassa had to approach the court to again extend the CPS contract to September 2018.

The SA Post Office took over administrating the grants after bers of the executive may not "wilfully mislead the legislature to which they are accountable".

The court asked the National Prosecuting Authority to investigate whether Dlamini should be prosecuted for perjury.

She resigned as an ANC MP in July after being excluded from Ramaphosa's cabinet.

Rhino shot on game farm

A rhino bull was found dead on a game farm outside Makhanda on Tuesday.

This is the second poaching incident in the Eastern Cape in 2019. The dead rhino was found about 40km from Makhanda along the Bushmans River.

About four years old, it had been dead for several days. It is believed it died from septicaemia after being shot.

Police spokesperson Colonel Sibongile Soci said both horns were intact but the incident is still recorded under poaching.

In 2018, 19 rhinos were killed in the Eastern Cape.

Earlier this year a rhino was poached at the Shamwari Game Reserve.
