O.R. TAMBO DISTRICT MUN

Notice of Partnership between the O.R. Tambo (ORTDM) and Furniture Technology Centre Trust

The OR Tambo District Municipality and Furniture Technology Centre Trust partnership to develop the capacity of unemployed people in Wood related and furniture making programme between ORTDM and Furntech is manifested in our SDBIP and IDP.

The Furniture Technology Centre Trust is in the forefront of wealth creation, SMME's development and Human Resource development training in the furniture and wood production sector. Our clear strategy which directs our vision, Furniture Technology Centre Trust has a central role in contributing to the development of the SMME's furniture sector.

Our mission is to be a productivity driven, global and technology based training provider that offers comprehensive and innovative business incubation services to assist in the wealth creation in OR Tambo District Municipality's furniture and wood production sector.

A key contributor to the success of the Furniture Technology Centre Trust trade and Industry (DTI) model is the emphasis on developing the technical and management skills of our clients to work with.

Based on the core mandate of the Furniture Technology Centre Trust (Furntech) incubation programme, the municipality is committed to acquire its services and partner with it for the implementation of the training program to benefit learners through the purposes of radical economic transformation. The Furniture Technology Centre Trust district aims to implement this program in line with the Finance Management Act 56, of 2003 (MFMA) of South Africa. The MFMA prescribes that "a supply chain management system must be in place where provided otherwise in these Regulations. In respect of the procurement of goods and services, the Act section 110 (2) of the Act".

The services and deliverable include:-

- Creating and enabling environment for Small and Medium Enterprises (SME's) in the furniture and wood production sector through business technology incubation.
- Developing business and production skills through business technology incubation and technology demonstration
- Facilitates the exit plan and access to market

Public inputs and enquiries may be directed to andiswa@ortambodm.gov.za or 047 501 6418 on 31 August 2018 at 12:00.
